Avant-propos
Foreword

This volume of Cahiers Linguistiques d'Ottawa is dedicated to the memory of Professor Philip Hauptman, who passed away July 2, 2003. Professor Hauptman had been at the University of Ottawa since 1971, affiliated with the Department of Linguistics, serving as chair of that department several times, and also serving as chair of the Second Language Institute for a time. He held other administrative posts in the University, including being a member of Senate. Of course, he was also very active in teaching and in supervision of students. For the past two years Phil was the faculty advisor for Cahiers Linguistiques d'Ottawa, a task which I have now undertaken. In all these capacities Phil was dedicated to the advance of scholarship and to the pursuit of excellence. We will all miss him.

John Jensen
Faculty Advisor
